Restarting Sexual Connection Worksheet

Define your le	evels of physical connection by number.
Ex. –	Level $0 = No$ physical touch	~ C
	Level 1 = holding hands, side hugs	TH C
	Level 2 = short kisses, hugs, cuddling on the couch	· W
	Level 3 = more intense kisses, hand-genital	()
	Etc.	U
stay at the low	els to let your partner know what you are comfortable with. If you are at different levels, ver level stated. Overtly share when you are comfortable moving to a higher level. This may but it will help to recreate connection and safety in this area of your relationship.
Create a list of	f phrases or actions that each of you will use to instigate sex.
• '	c) can either of you use in response if you aren't interested in sex? Defining these can help belings of rejection, while allowing both of you to have a voice around what you do with
What phrase(s	c) can either of you use to pause or stop sexual activity if you get triggered?
know how to r but the other is	actions are things you enjoy during sex? Defining these can help you and your partner make the experience best for both of you. Note that there may be items one of you enjoys, is not comfortable with. Stating that you enjoy something does not mean your partner needs ing that is not comfortable. Sex is about connection and if one individual is not comfortable, ill be limited.
What do each	of you need following sex to ensure that the connection felt is maximized?	(1) V
		DI
	ANTE CA
	©2020 Laney E. Knowlton. All Rights Reserved. ConnectedRecoveryTraining.com

Our Levels of Physical Connection

Level 0 –
Level 0 =
A BAR
9
Level 1 –
9
Level 2 –	TEO .
,
	- X X
	O oceno, ()
Level 3 –
-
Level 4 –
Level 4
W
70, (
· · ·
Level 5 –	